Our condolences to the families who have lost loved ones.

September 6, 1925 - January 8, 2017 Reverend John Joseph Daly leapt into eternal life on the feast of the Epiphany, Sunday, January 8, 2017. Fr. John was born in Ardee, Co. Louth, Ireland on September 6, 1925. He was the second son of Peter Daly and Rose Reilly and was raised on the hills and country roads around his beloved Ballapusta. At age 23 he went off on his first overseas adventure which took him to New South Wales, Australia. There he worked on a sheep farm. During this time, Fr. John heard the call of the Lord to serve him as a priest. Following his seminary training at All Hallows College Seminary in Dublin, Ireland, he was ordained on June 14, 1959. His first assignment was to the Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn at St. Peter and Paul's Catholic Church in Goulburn, New South Wales, Australia. He spent the next 15 years in Australia. In 1974 he traveled to California where he served the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in various parishes. He retired as pastor of Holy Trinity parish in Atwater Village in 1997 but remained active both at Holy Trinity and the SungSam Korean Center until recently. Fr. John is preceded in death by his parents, Peter Daly and Rose Reilly; his sisters, Phyllis and Mary; and brothers, Peadar and Micheal. He is survived by siblings, Imelda, Patrick (Frances), Joe (Ailish), Oliver (Maureen), Tommy (Marge), Ann, and Gerard, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, grand-nieces and grand-nephews, family and friends who will cherish his memory forever. Services were held at Holy Trinity Church, Los Angeles on 14th January, 2017. (L. A. Times)

Noel John Devine was born on 17th December 1924 in Longford and died peacefully on 16th January 2017, at his home in Long Beach. Noel was the last surviving sibling of sixteen children born to the late Thomas and Margaret Devine.

Noel emigrated from Ireland to California in 1961. He originally met his wife Mary in Ireland and then reunited with her in Long Beach in 1962. They were married in 1963. Noel never forgot his roots and his family; he and his family were regular visitors to Longford and elsewhere in Ireland and England over the years. He was a devoted husband, father, brother, and uncle. A selfless and hardworking provider, Noel was a man of deep faith and kindness with the most genuine spirit. He was a devoted parishioner of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Long Beach for more than 50 years and a faithful Catholic his whole life.

Noel will be fondly remembered for his love of old movies, taking photos ("Ready...steady...go!"), and all things automotive. His sense of humor was infectious. Even while his health was in decline, he could be counted on for a joke out of the blue in the Longford lilt that he never lost.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Lynch Devine; daughter, Margaret Devine; son, Thomas Devine; daughter, Anne-Marie Devine Tasto (Matthew); granddaughter, Monica Mary Tasto; and a grandson to-be. Services were held at St Joseph's Church in Long Beach on 28th January 2017.

In Memory of Annie Kathleen Doody October 12, 1928 - January 26, 2017

Kathleen was born in County Leitrim to James and Annie McGowan. Kathleen had three brothers – Patrick, James, and Michael. The entire McGowan family except for Michael immigrated to Los Angeles. Like many immigrants at that time, Kathleen attended Irish dances at Fifth and Western and it was at one of those dances she met her future husband, James Doody.

Kathleen and James were married on June 28, 1952 and shortly after that moved to Alhambra where they raised a family with four children – Kathy, Kevin, Jimmy, and Eileen. Kathleen and James were very active and loyal supporters of various organizations, including Ireland's Own Social Club and the Ancient Order of Hibernians. They enjoyed attending Irish field days, dances, and concerts.

Kathleen was a proud American citizen and, after caring for her family, she earned a high school diploma by attending classes at night,. Kathleen loved to garden and she particularly loved rose bushes. She also enjoyed reading and took great pride in sewing many of her own clothes. She enjoyed taking trips with her family to the beach, to national parks, and back to Ireland.

After a long battle with Alzheimers, Kathleen died on January 26, 2017 at her home in Alhambra surrounded by her four children, seven grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren plus one on the way. A rosary and funeral mass will be held on Saturday, February 11, 2017 beginning at 10:00 am. She will be interred at Calvary Cemetery with her husband James. Both her parents are also interred at Calvary. The rosary and mass will be held at St. Thomas More Church, 2510 South Fremont Avenue, Alhambra, CA 91803

THE BELLS OF IRELAND

I hear the bells of Ireland ring
and I hear the songs the Fairies sing,
I heard the music when the Harp was strummed
and the strange beat of the Bodhran drum.
I hear the lilt of laughter of the little folk at play, and the sound of hammers tapping as the Elf's worked all the day.
I hear the message in the breeze as it blows
ore the Bog, and I hear the Church bells ringing calling all to worship GOD.
