REST IN PEACE

Bridget 'Babe' Nagle

11/23/1929 – 10/19/2019

Babe was born in the parish of Ennistymon, County Clare, the seventh of eight children. Babe emigrated to Chicago, Ill., at the age of 18 where she met Patrick (PJ) Nagle at an Irish social. PJ also emigrated from County Clare, and they were married in Chicago, 1952.

Babe and PJ came to Los Angeles on their honeymoon, and quickly realized this was a better place for them to raise a family, so they stayed. They both acclimated to the Southern California lifestyle, first living in Los Angeles, then South El Monte, before finally settling in West Covina.

Babe and PJ had 5 children, Patrick (Lisa), Kevin, Mike (Cathy), Maureen (Stan) and Kate (Danny). The family quickly grew to include 9 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

Babe kept busy supporting activities with her local parish, and many Irish events such as the Columbian Fathers Dance. She loved the Irish community, where she met so many friends that she kept in touch throughout her life.

She also enjoyed working with the Irish Center of Southern California, and their annual St. Patrick's Day dance.

She loved to knit, and donated afghans and many other items to be auctioned off in the silent auction.

Babe lived a great life, surrounded by family, who she loved dearly, and many, many friends. She left a legacy.

Subject: RE : Irish cards

Dear Sir,

I would like to ask you if you sell Irish cards in your shop. I am an Artist living in Dublin and exhibiting in Dublin and Cork for past twenty years, My work is printed on cards which are blank inside. Focusing mainly on Georgian doors but have cards of Trinity College

St Stephen's Green and Cork scenes. They have been selling in Dublin for a number of years and for six years in the Crawford Gallery in Cork city and continue to sell there.

Making my first visit to Los Angeles for four days mid- December staying in Santa Barbara for Christmas.

Sending you some images for you to look at, these are just four of about a dozen images printed on my cards, and will look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Jacqueline Holohan

Dear Friends at the Irish Center of Southern California,

My name is Amanda Ryvkin, and I work for Sounding Point, a marketing company that works closely with various arts organizations, including CAP UCLA. I'm reaching out because I'm working on a performance that I thought might be of interest to your supporters and followers: Michael Keegan-Dolan/Teač Dańsa: Loch na hEala (Swan Lake) on Nov 9. We'd love some help spreading the word and would like to offer your newsletter subscribers and social media followers discounted tickets. Would you be able to share some information about this show on your social media channels or in one of your emails?

From the imagination of one of Ireland's foremost dance and theatre-makers, Sadler's Wells Associate Artist Michael Keegan-Dolan, comes a magical new adaptation of one of the most famous ballets in the world, Swan Lake. Loosely based on the traditional tale, this dark comedy version takes place in the present in a small town in Ireland. Performed by a company of 14 world-class performers including actor Mikel Murfi, this new production is interwoven with storytelling, song and live music. The Dublin-based band Slow Moving Clouds has created a new score, combining Nordic and Irish traditional music with minimalist and experimental influences. With beautiful dancing and powerful imagery, Swan Lake is rooted in the Midlands of Ireland, where Subject: My new movie premieres on Netflix today!

Dear friends, family and colleagues:

My new movie — HOME IS WHERE THE KILLER IS — premieres today on Netflix!

It's a female driven thriller that filmed in L.A. last fall. It will also be available to buy or rent on Amazon and iTunes.

When I visited the set, I was recruited to be an extra — so I appear in the opening scene!

Hope you get a chance to see it.

Thanks,

Christina

IrelandWeek is thrilled to host these 2 looney legends!

TICKETS ON SALE HERE NOW

As the world's leading podcast covering riding, gaelic games and parish news, the 2 Johnnies podcast is an unlikely global success story but the combination of Johnny B, Johnny Smacks, producer Maura, Lauren and of course Noel Furlong has catapulted them to the No.1 position in Ireland podcast charts every week for over 80 weeks!

Now they take the podcast for a world tour with the whole crew on board, a ton of special surprises and all the madness and mayhem of the world of the 2 Johnnies in a theatre near you!

Kicking off in London and visiting Cork, Galway, LA, Dublin, New York, Belfast, Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne, Dubai, New York and lots more, the 2 Johnnies take the show on the road to a town near you!

The 2 Johnnies – A bit about

The 2 Johnnies hit the Irish entertainment scene with a bang. It's been a whirlwind journey so far and they are only just getting started. Within an exceptionally short amount of time, they had multiple number one songs on the Irish iTunes charts - it was the kind of success that only George Ezra himself could slow down, but with some perseverance they succeeded in taking Ezra down a peg or two.

With a SOLD OUT nationwide comedy tour under their belts, "GET LOOSE" blew the roof off some of the biggest venues in Ireland. As a result, Johnny B (O'Brien) & Johnny Smacks (McMahon) have won the hearts of the nation with their hugely popular, hilarious comedy sketches and songs that capture the uniquely funny side of all things Irish.

With over 15,000 Tickets sold for their national Irish tour earlier this year, 6 Irish No.1 singles and their No.1 podcast in the Irish charts in their pocket,

If you're not already listening to the Podcast and adding their latest single 'Sinéad to your Spotify or watching the amazing video onyoutube, here's a few more reasons to check them out.

These lads tick all the boxes. Check out these incredible stats:

- 10 million YouTube views from 80k subscribers
- No.1 in the Irish Podcast charts for 81 weeks
