Letters to the Editor

Hi Tom!

I append to this email the official Omaha release of the announcement that Tim Mulroy (Swinford, Co. Mayo) was elected a few days ago in Taiwan as new Superior General of the Columban Fathers. I'm sure you met him over the past six years; he was regional director in Omaha.

Tim will be in Los Angeles next week to speak at the Columban centennial Mass at St. Vincent's downtown. Day/date/time: Saturday, Oct 6th, beginning at 6:00 p.m. This event, organized by Tim from Omaha, is a combination Mass/concert. No charge. The Music will be provided by old friends of the L.A. Columbans: the Jubilate Korean Choir, directed by Mrs. Clara Kim. The singers come from all over the greater L.A. area. You remember her and them, I'm sure: they used to practice their singing in the basement of our Vermont Ave. House.

Maybe you would email this to your close-by clientele. Unfortunately, we have no secretariat in L.A. any more -- neither office nor secretary; so there has been no L.A.-based mailing about the Mass/concert to our L.A. friends. It's Omaha's project. (See information on page 9).

Waking Kate plays the Tam O'Shanter, October 20th, 2018 8:00 p - 11:00 p

It seems like years since we had a Kate hooley, and we really have missed you so much, truly!
we are now in the fall and surrounded with heat,
I guess its better than from a hurricane trying to retreat.

The only constant thing in life is change we know,
but our fiddle player suddenly moving was a blow!
yet when good fortune comes one cannot say maybe?
we wish Chris and Erin well with new life and first Waking Kate baby!

Meanwhile back to the business of pipes, strings bodhran and bow, we cannot wait to see you all and put on a show.
Rollicking reels, tall tales, bad jokes, dancers in full flight, it's the return of the Waking Kate, Tamoshanter, oct 20 th, good night!

Subject: My movie BELIEVE ME premieres on Lifetime this Sunday, September 30!

Dear friends, family and colleagues:

I'm excited to share the news with you that the movie I wrote — "Believe Me: The Abduction of Lisa McVey" — premieres on Lifetime this Sunday, September 30!

Based on a true story from 1984, it's an incredibly timely tale of a young woman whose story of rape and abduction was not believed — by her family or the police.

When one detective finally believed her, the details Lisa provided led to the capture of a serial killer who had been preying on women in Tampa for six months.

Mailing address is 1931 W. Glenoaks Blvd., Glendale. CA 91201 Vol.99 OCTOBER, 2018

Lisa's information led them to the killer in 12 days. She fought for her life ... and saved an untold number of lives in the process.

It's a chilling, compelling, uplifting and triumphant story.

Check your local listings as the time it airs will vary depending on your cable/ satellite plan and on where you live!

Just below is a link to a preview.

I hope you will tune in, set your DVRs, tell your friends — share the link!

If you miss it this Sunday — it will repeat in a special edition on Saturday, October 6!

Thanks,

Christina Welsh

Subject: Save Tom Bergin's

Hello,

Tom Bergin's Bar and Restaurant, a long time and historic part of Los Angeles, is threatened by demolition in the near future. The Miracle Mile Residential Association and the Los Angeles Conservancy (with the financial support of Mid City West Community Council) have sponsored Tom Bergin's Bar and Restaurant for Historic-Cultural Monument status. Here's a link to a story about it from the Larchmont Buzz:

<https://www.larchmontbuzz.com/featured-stories-larchmont-village/tom-bergins-nominated-as-historic-cultural-monument/>

We've created an email generator that makes it quick and easy for folks to send a message to Los Angeles City Councilmember Ryu and the Cultural Heritage Commission in support of landmark status for Bergin's: <https://support.miraclemilela.com>

So far it's been utilized to sent over 300 emails. Could you please share this link with fellow Bergin's fans? The more the merrier — and the better our shot at saving Bergin's.

Thank you,

Irish Columban Fr. Tim Mulroy elected Superior General

The General Assembly, which has been meeting in Taiwan for the past two weeks, has elected Irishman Fr Tim Mulroy as the new Superior General of the Missionary Society of St Columban.

Fr Mulroy is a former primary school teacher. He has been regional director in the US for the past six years. Originally from Meelick, Swinford, Co Mayo, Fr Mulroy attended Meelick NS and St Patrick's Secondary School, Swinford. He became a Columban seminarian in 1987 and was ordained at Our Lady Help of Christians Church, Swinford in 1995.

The 54-year-old worked in parish ministry in Japan from 1995 until 2002, when he went to the US as director of formation at the Columban International Seminary in Chicago, a role he held for nine years. Afterwards he served in parish ministry at St Pius X Parish in El Paso, Texas before he was elected Regional Superior in November 2012, a role he continued in until 2018. He succeeded Fr Arturo Aguilar, who became Columban Vicar General in 2012.

The new Vicar General of the Society is Fr Brian Vale from New Zealand, who is currently serving as Regional Director in ANZ. He has worked in Japan.

Joseph Kang, Vice-Director in Korea, has been elected second councillor. He studied theology in Maynooth and spent six years in Peru. The other councillor is Chilean Fr Alvaro Patricio Martinez Ibañez. He is the youngest son in a family of ten children. Fr Alvaro joined the columbans in 1994. Between 1995-1996 he studied philosophy at the Major Seminary in Santiago (Chile). Then in 1997, he spent a number of months in Ireland studying English before he went to Fiji in 1998 to do his FMA.

Between 1999-2002, he studied Theology at CTU (Chicago) and was ordained a deacon in November 2002. He returned to Chile in 2003 where he was ordained to the priesthood in May of that year.

Between 2004-2011, Fr Alvaro acted as co-ordinator for vocations and headed up the formation house in Chile. In May 2011, he was appointed as regional director for Chile and he continued in this role until 2017. He had been due to take up a new assignment in the US region but will now take up his position with the general council in Hong Kong. You can hear Fr Tim Mulroy explain what drew him to the Missionary Society of St Columban and what continues to inspire him here: <https://columbans.ie/the-columban-call/>

A chara,

I am writing to invite your organisation to participate in the third annual International Herstory Light Festival on the 4-7th January 2019.

A new Ireland is emerging

A new wave of compassionate feminism is emerging in Ireland, creating a wonderful grassroots movement towards equality. I hope your organisation will join us in this special celebration of women and equality - a true expression of who we are and what it means to be Irish. This will be the most spectacular start to 2019!

From the shadows into the light

Launched by the Irish Herstory Movement in 2017, the Herstory Light Festival went viral around the island of Ireland with castles, museums, libraries, theatres, sculptures, churches, and offices illuminating in honour of women. In January 2018, the festival generated 26 million Twitter impressions worldwide, and went international with participation in the USA, UK, Spain, Sweden, France, Lithuania, Slovenia, and Poland.

Sparking a global celebration of equality

Following the success of the 2018 festival, the Department of Foreign Affairs & Trade (DFAT) made Herstory a Cultural Ambassador of Ireland. The DFAT has commissioned Herstory and EPIC, The Irish Emigration Museum, to create an exhibition entitled Blazing a Trail, celebrating Irish Diaspora heroines, which launches across the Irish embassy network on the 21st November 2018. The Department of Foreign Affairs is championing participation in the 2019 Herstory Light Festival across the Irish Embassy network worldwide.

A liberating discovery

There are four festival themes and for 2019, and the big focus is the World of Equals theme, inspired by our discovery that in nearly every remarkable woman's biography there was a man who saw her as an equal. They were fathers, brothers, husbands, teachers and friends. Of course, this theme includes same-sex partnerships too. Equality is human nature. When we see it we have to celebrate it!

How to participate

This is a festival for the people and there are a number of ways your county can participate – below are some ideas to start. For advice on sourcing images and commissioning new portraits, please click here. To have your light installation or event featured in the official festival programme, please complete the online application form by the 30th November.

On behalf of the Herstory team,

Yours Sincerely,
Melanie Lynch

or The Modern Prometheus

Joe Praml reads an excerpt from his autobiographical novel, JFC!

As a school boy prank, an 11-year-old boy offers Mary Shelley's Frankenstein to read, review and report as a class-wide project and the teacher unexpectedly accepts. The chastened boy finds the book difficult to read at first but is drawn into a fantastic and moving story, and emerges a changed boy who comes face to face with powerful ideas of yearning, vengeance, responsibility and death. He finds this book is definitely not the Frankenstein of the movies.
